BREVARD COLLEGE

BREVARD COLLEGE

Methodist junior college:
coeducational. Opened its doors in 1934 after merger of Weaver and Rutherford colleges.

DESIGNED BY ALBERTA ANN WATSON

Winds Of Change ...

In time, everything changes. For some students, this is their first time on their own or in a multi-cultural environment. Others may be setting off to a new, independent career and way of life. There are those that will transfer to another school and have to adapt to that new environment. Then, there are the students who have the distinct pleasure of being Brevard's first juniors and seniors as Brevard itself changes into a four-year institution this year. The Brevard Tornados are caught up in the winds of change.

STUDENT LIFE

A New Beginning

Josh graciously accepts from his dad all the green that will at least last him through the weekend.

Confused and thoughtless, Ivy looks for directions.

"Hurry Up and Wait."

Lending a helping hand Shawn and Fad prepare for a new life of "BEAM."

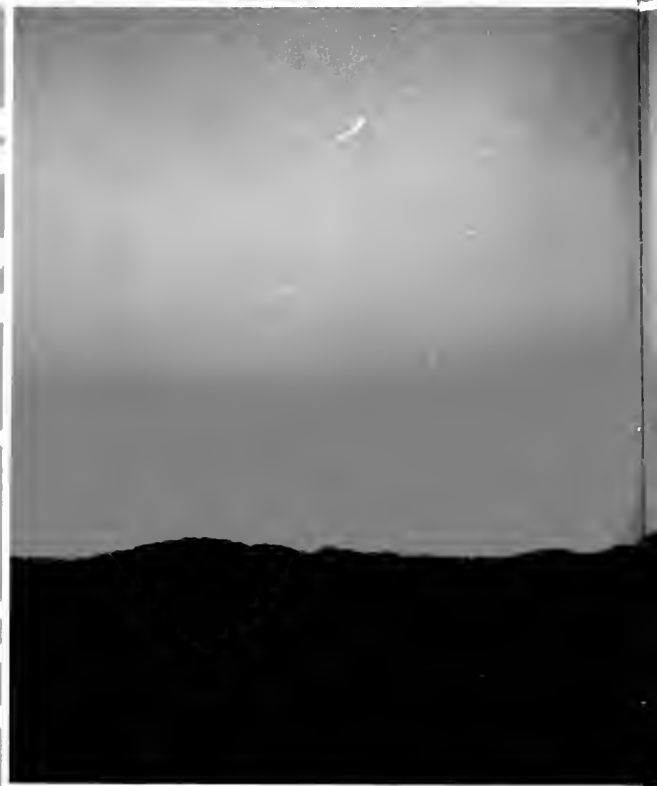

Back for her second year, Katina made sure she brought everything!

Clenesta, Melanie, Bryan, and Dimitra get to know each other better during Play Fair.

After the first day of English class, Randy checks through the ever-popular Cliff Notes for support.

Out And About

Matt and Hiromi demonstrate team work during the Volleyball competition.

Doing what he does best, Raymond eats his way to victory in the chubby bunny contest.

Despite the wind, the dorms compete against each other in the tissue paper relay.

Jones Dorm sails to an easy victory in the boat race.

Chris concentrates moments before he jumps in to win the boat relay.

Julie, still standing, appears determined not to fall during the dizzy bat race.

Derby Day

Josh doesn't appear to be as enthusiastic about the balloon stomping as the rest of these students.

Mike smiles a sigh of relief after he realizes that his egg has not burst.

Homecoming

Samba Ngo rocks Dunham auditorium with their African rock and jazz.

Homecoming is a time for the past to be relived and the present to be reborn. Alumni from all walks of life found themselves back at good 'ole BC where dreams and hopes were pursued. The future is the students of BC and the Court. For them, the weekend brought festivity and excitement beginning with two great bands, Samba Ngo and Sister Moon, on Friday evening and the Homecoming dance that night. Saturday morning festivities included breakfast for alumni, faculty, and students; whereas most of the excitement during Saturday was first ushered in by the Homecoming Court and its winners, and secondly by the men's soccer game against Davidson. Victories that day went to Marcus Lester and Lia Tanner, Homecoming King and Queen; and to Amit Khemani and Danielle Barreto, Prince and Princess.

BC students mingle and bond during the men's soccer game.

Wearing joker's hats, Kara and Jewell display their spirit.

More BC spirit and fun is displayed during the soccer game.

Seconds Flat, a local band, jammed for students on Saturday night.

Celebrating a goal, BC men dogpile together in front of their loyal fans.

The 1995-96 Homecoming Court: JR Akers, Josh Ward, Tommy Lancaster, Pierre Bugarui, Raleigh Antoniotti, Laura Bratton, Marcus Lester, Lia Tanner, Amit Khemani, Danielle Barreto, Amy McDonald, Paul Gerber, Fred Woodward, Ilona Perry, and Brooke Dean.

All the lady representatives anxiously await the announcement of Queen and King.

1995-96 Homecoming Queen and King:
Lia Tanner and Marcus Lester

Princess and Prince: Danielle Barreto and Amit Khemani

Laid Back

Many students enjoyed hanging out by the dorm.

Sun-bathing by King's Creek is popular, especially for the spectators.

Mike enjoys reading the paper in his spare time.

Cammy and Rene lay back in between their classes.

Tommy snoozes before class, but makes sure he doesn't miss it.

Erick kicks back and reads ahead in his Lit. class.

Students often relax on the lawn of the quad.

Luis sees who he can tag in one shot.

Tommy and Tammy cool off in the fountain.

A rare Brevard monkey, Kareem, climbing a tree.

Krystal, Jaime, & Mary discuss weekend plans.

Having Fun.

Derby Day spins out of control.

A slip of Alex's tongue.

Mark Casson joins the fun during playfair.

After experiencing his first week at BC, "Cupcake" was never really quite the same.

Dumb, Dumber, and Dumbest ... (Josh, Jeremy, and Ira).

Pete, Joe Blau, Billy Bob, Kareem, and Alex cram for a television appreciation final.

East Beam

Due to stress, Sean spaces out before a major exam.

DeeDee spends a quiet evening at home with her stuffed menagerie.

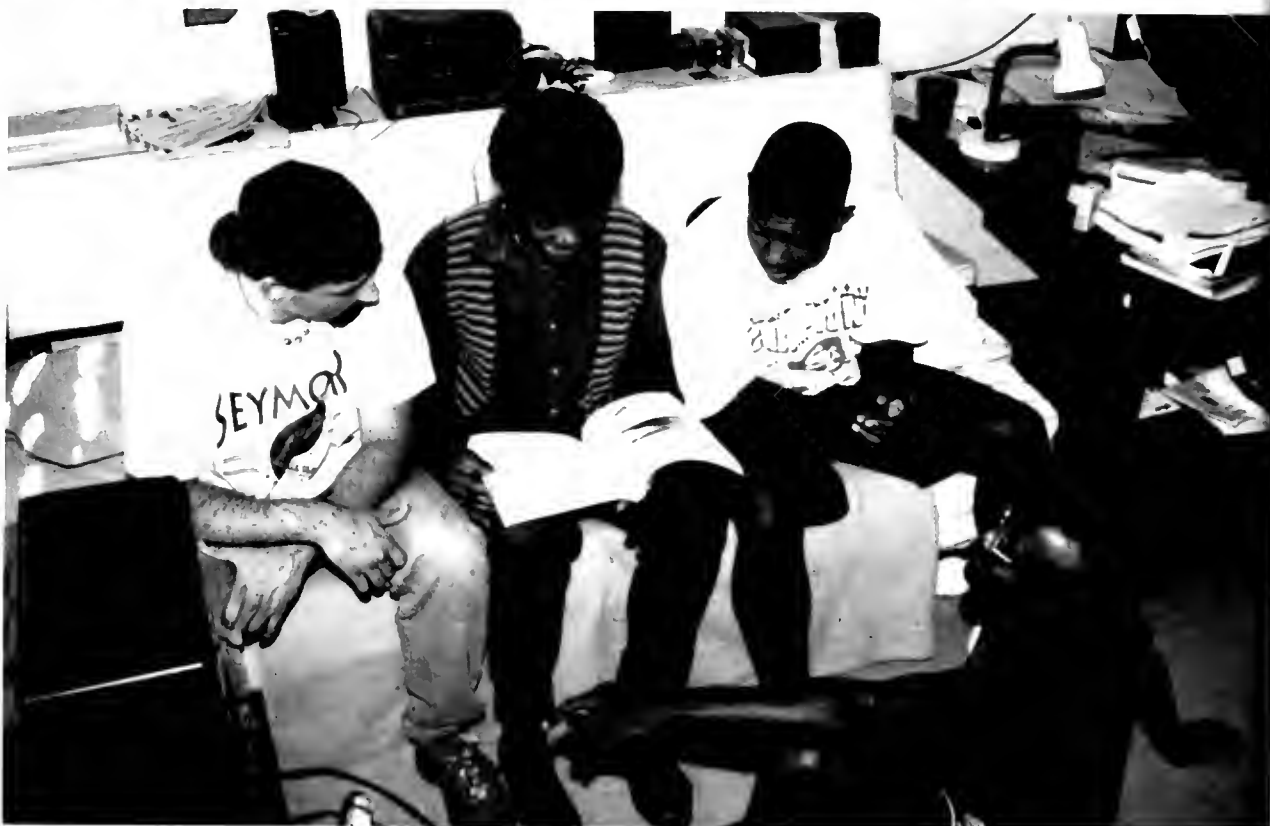

Tiese, Erica, and Jason goof around in TT's room.

Nate and John perform male-bonding rituals in order to become better roommates.

Kathy and her companion take an afternoon nap.

Chris packs his bag for a weekend outing.

John, Lawanda, "Spark
plug", and "Doghouse" gather for an intense stud session.

West Beam

Sasha, Erin, Laura, Kara, and Sarah share a bowl of Pebbles, a little bit of peace, and a whole lot of love.

In the midsts of West Beam's chaos, Will remains studious.

Cliff finds out that sleeping is almost impossible with "friends" like Brandon and Moody around.

Brandi takes advantage of a quiet hall to make a phone call.

Clark and Grant look suspicious.

Kendall takes a study break and "chills."

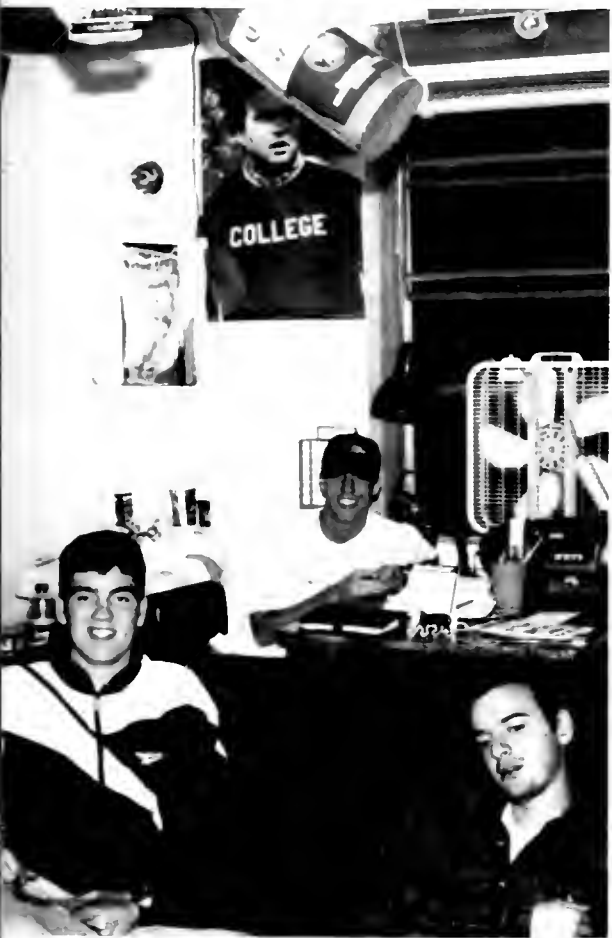

Late night with JR,
Travis, Raheem, Chris,
and Jaba

Green

Sherod is deep in thought.

Just two more Nintendo junkies.

Grant, Jason and Vosca "live it up" in Green.

Michael fails to see Nathan's humor about getting written up for visitation.

Dale fires at a point blank and makes a bullseye on the third try.

Taylor guitarists jam to a few not so classic songs.

Residents and their visitors pause for a midnight photo.

Pete plays a one man game of red light and green light.

Matt and John desperately search for a date.

Taylor

Taylor residents discuss their appreciation for fine art.

Chris takes an accidental break from his English homework.

Ayako and Manami observe BC culture from their window.

Share and Julia are still friends after a shaving cream fight.

Ladies night out for some Jones girls.

Jones

Jenny leaves yet another message for Julia.

Jessica does her best Marilyn Monroe pose.

Just another social gathering for Julie, Stephanie, and Martha.

Erica and Brooke look suspicious!

Sean and Bill take a break after breakfast.

Sean rings up 1-900 numbers on his friend's phone.

Tommy and Robbie in heavy competition.

Complex

Will studies for a psychology test.

Candyman, candyman can you add

While no one is looking, Rhett steals the last piece of pizza.

Bill pretends to study while writing a sappy love letter.

Dusty and Yolanda are too cool for their own good.

Cindy is not as innocent as she looks.

Carmel, Dimitra, Lawanda, Melody, Cindy, Amanda, Dusty, Veronica, Kenya, and Melody beg Coach Connor to not make them run anymore.

Duplex

Angela can not get over him.

No one can take the style of Clenese.

Amanda and Cindy find time out of their busy schedule to pose for a snap shot in Duplex.

As you can see, it is a fact,
Dimitra does study.

Yes, Daniel, you're caught.

Mami smiles for the camera.

Andy, Tod, Amy, Paul, and Dale hang out in the lobby of Ross Hall.

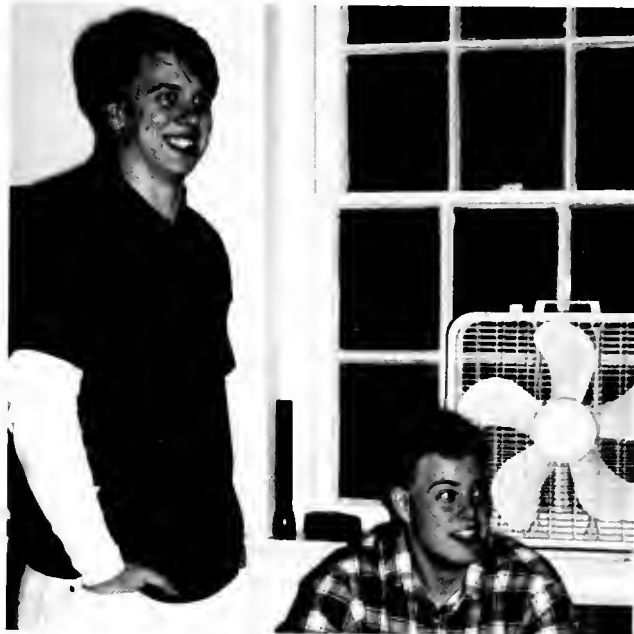

John holds the old ceiling of Ross Hall up.

While sitting on his bed, Michael takes time out from some of his classes.

Ross Hall

Mikako goes for a bike ride.

Todd and Dale laugh at a friend's humorous joke.

Tanya takes her frustrations out on Pete, so she doesn't have to take them home with her.

Michael checks out what's going on around this area.

The Commuter Gang!

Commuters

JJ and Judy support the tree as well as the commuters.

The commuter lounge provides a quiet place to study for Summer.

Only three commuters admit they are ready to go home.

Josh ends his day with a song.

Parents Weekend

Adelaide Hart, Megan O'Brien and Mr. O'Brien discuss the importance of good grades for transferring to another college.

Rachel Daniels and Scott Yager discuss Jason Stroud classes with Mrs. Stroud.

Jason Smiley shows his parents how wonderful the cafeteria food is.

Laura McDowell, Ruth Still, and Pat Robinson discuss Music theory among themselves.

Michael Holmes' mother receives help from Mr. Wetmore about the Internet system.

Dr. Teague and Ms. Pumphrey steal a moment's chat before meeting the parents.

A line of parents and students wait to sign-in.

Halloween

Karen, Daneila, Jo-lynn, Claudia, and Jennifer get ready to trick or treat.

GI Joe and friend (Chris and Nate) relax in the barracks.

Oh no, not Saturday night fever again.

Christin shows off her creative pumpkin.

Carina and Shane went for the baby look on the night of the Halloween dance.

"Heh, this is cool."

Ashley and Heidi meet some of the kids that are trick or treating.

Who are these masked people?

Fran Lynch in the PIO office. Amy Howard works at the Humane Society Thrift Store.

Kanae Yonezawa, Tomomi Sano, and Yukako Uchiyama cook at the Homeless Shelter.

Hiromi, Christle, Lyle, and Mami prepare clothes for Upper Sand Mountain Parish Thrift Store over Fall Break.

Project Inside-Out

John, Anna, Manabe, and staff of Upper Sand Mountain Parish of Compest pile over Fall Break.

Project Inside-Out is the service learning component for graduation. Students volunteer 30 hours of work in the Brevard area, in their home towns, or on service trips during school breaks. This work enables students to examine and live out their responsibility to others and to the community at large. As students put together the hands on work experience with the experiences in the classroom, their horizons are broadened and they are more sensitive to understanding the needs of others.

Beth puts labels on student's brochures.

Chris helps stuff college brochures to prospective BC students.

Beth types away diligently.

Work Study

The work study program at BC strives to provide the students with an opportunity to experience a true work situation. BC employs about 80 students, and these students work in sixteen different departments on campus, performing clerical work, tutoring, preparing labs, and assisting faculty. Lisa Ann Masterson, Director of Student and Volunteer Work Opportunity helps these future leaders to develop good work habits and attitudes.

John helps to keep the grounds clean.

“Gruss Gott From Austria”

During the Spring and Summer sessions, BC students along with the program director Dr. Scott Sheffield, Dr. David Kirby, and Dr. Laura McDowell spend several unforgettable months in Austria and surrounding countries. During their trip, the students visit archaeological sites, homes of famous composers, castles, and museums. While in Austria, the students are guided and housed by Maggie Zednik, a former professor at BC, in Altmunster. While under her wing, the students are exposed to all facets of the German culture.

Catherine, Rick and Joshua rest after a hike up to Festung HoherSalzburg in Salzburg.

Maggi and “William” at home in the apartment on Abteistrasse, after a day of German lessons.

In Vienna one can stroll the beautiful gardens of the Belvedere Palace, home of paintings by Schiele, Kokoshka and Klimt.

Every day one could see the Almueenster Church, backdropped by green mountains, and hear the chiming of the parrish bells.

On an excursion to Czechy Krumlov, students observed the walls of a monastery.

During a weekend trip to Prague, Czech Republic, students saw the Gothic spires of Staromestski Namesti.

The final week in Austria, the organ and stained glass of St. Stephens Cathedral in Vienna, offer a place to reflect.

ADMINISTRATION STAFF

Happy, happy, joy, joy

The advance to the President's Office has treated Betty well.

President Bertrand finds some time to relax in the great outdoors.

Dr. Bertrand and Dr. Teaque review notes before Convocation.

President Betrand with his family.

President Betrand accepts a plaque which designates the stone wall and gate as a registered historic place from Dr. Dean Colvard of UNC-Charlotte.

Office Of The President

This year the Office of the President remains as busy as ever. Dr. Betrand, along with his Senior Staff and Administrative Assistant Betty Neale, face new challenges, such as guiding the College into a four year status. This office commits itself to advancing the prestige and overall worth of Brevard College by reviewing such programs as the Baccalaureate of Fine Arts in Music and Art, and the upcoming Baccalaureate in Environmental Science headed by the Dalton Chair, Larry Ragsdale, along with the proposed Baccalaureate in Theater. It's not hard to see why the President's Office remains a constant hub of activity.

Dr. Teague, Sr. Vice-President, leads the faculty in discussion on our new four-year programs.

Linda Epperson remains calm even when talking with parents.

Academic Affairs

The Academic Affairs Office has a host of duties. Catalog development, Continuing Education, Registration, Academic Discipline, and scheduling are some of the chores these employees are responsible for just to keep the college on the right academic track.

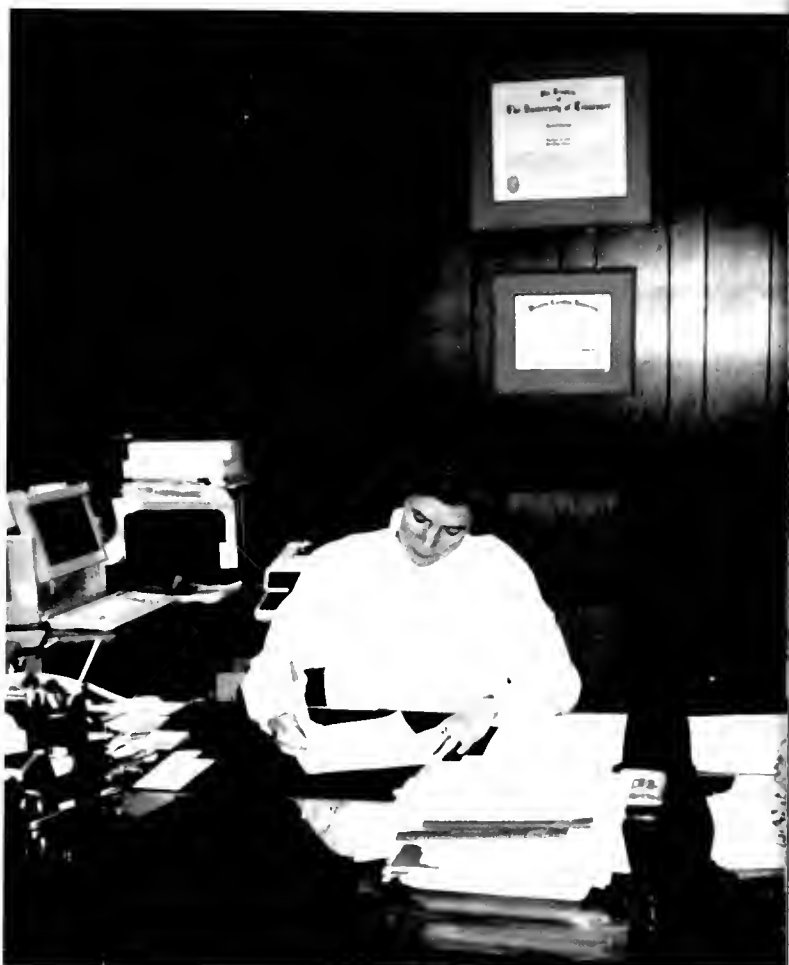

Rick escorts a prospective student and his parents into the library.

Caron enjoys sitting in her office a lot more than traveling around recruiting.

Cindy waits patiently for a new recruit to come in the door.

Mike spends a lot of time on the phone answering prospective students' questions.

Admissions And Financial Aid

The admission's staff stays busy each year planning for next year's student body. They travel to various high schools to interview prospective students. While in the office they review students' credentials, award scholarship money, and host visitation days.

In turn, the financial aid staff reviews the needs on incoming students as well as present BC students. This staff also keeps busy with work study students, scholarship and grant awards, and counseling students on making the best financial decision possible.

Kelly Wilkie checks her debits and credits carefully.

Joyce Rogers finally convinces Erika that athletes are not on the pension plan.

Keeping up with all of the college's finances keeps Don Strickland very busy.

Using good communication skills, Debbie Hall keeps the college's insurance company in line.

Members of the Business and Finance Office: Don Strickland, Debbie Hall, Kelly Wilkie, Argyle Gash, Joyce Rogers, and Doris Montgomery.

Willy Evans makes sure that the business office stays "on line."

Business And Finance

The employees in the Business and Finance Office work to see that everyone stays content by meeting their responsibilities which include keeping each student's account accurate, distributing staff salaries, and keeping the college's books balance.

Julie Heinitsch proves invaluable as she raises funds and volunteer support for BC.

Robbie Warren and Paige Johnson discuss fundraising issues.

Campus Life

The Campus Life staff works to keep the campus active and safe. From student dances to routine security checks, the hard working employees help to keep the students happy, entertained, and secure.

Campus Life

ADMINISTRATION

Library

Where can you find most students between 7 and 9 p.m.? — in the library. The James Addison library is one of the most important places on campus, for it provides useful resources for growing minds. The library houses over 44,000 books, 300 CD's, 500 videotapes, periodicals, and many new CD-ROM's, such as Academic Index, News Bank, SIRS, and Discovering Authors; as many will confirm, this building on campus provides a priceless source of information and entertainment for students, faculty, and county residents.

Eda Parker redistributes books by looking at the card catalog. Jan Jones lends a hand to Kelly by looking at the card catalog.

While researching on Infotrack, Andy receives help from Librarian Mike McCabe.

Bookstore

The BC bookstore has it all! The hard-working staff runs a post office and mini-department store. At the beginning of the semester, the students swamp the bookstore to buy school supplies, textbooks, and those "gotta have" bags of gummy bears and sunflower seeds. Throughout the semester, students run to the bookstore anxiously to pick up those packages and letters from home. And in the winter, those who did not pack for the "winter" flood into the bookstore to buy up all of the sweat suits, sweaters, and hats.

Rhett and Bill discuss a card at the bookstore.

Millie Carmen spends a lot of time sorting through all the students' mail.

ADMINISTRATION AND STAFF

Infirmery And Connection Center

The Infirmery and the Connection Center provide various services for students. To keep the students in healthy shape Lee Henry, Mary Krick, and Kristy Buell, PA-C treat their ailments. They offer good advice and compassion unless your complaint is self inflicted. On the other hand, the Reverend Ernie Mills and Counselor Adelaide Hart in the Connection Center aid students on a less physical level. This department offers spiritual counsel and academic advice for students who will transfer to other schools.

Kristy washes up before seeing another student.

Mary and Lee look thrilled to be out of the infirmery to attend a staff meeting.

Adelaide Hart and Ernie Mills want you to come by the Connection Center.

Ernie Mills can lecture in the classroom as well as preach.

Adelaide takes time away from students to help Dr. Glesener.

Chaplain Mills researches a theological topic.

Cafe & S.U.

Good nutrition is an important step towards good grades. The BC Cafeteria, provided by ARA food services is constantly changing in attempt to cater to the diverse needs and taste of the students.

With an ability to choose from a variety of entres and side dishes, it is even easier to find something that satisfies. This year also hails the arrival of Robinson's BBQ and Grill Snack Bar located in the S.U. lobby. The snack bar brings some of the best tastes of the south right onto campus for the undoubted enjoyment of the students. As a result of increase in options, there is little reason to go hungry at Brevard.

Housekeeping And Maintenance

No, your mom does not work here! It seems that way, because of the efficiency of our Housekeeping and Maintenance staff. Much diligence and hard work goes into keeping our grounds and buildings in neat and tip-toe shape. These unseen and unsung heroes add to the comfortable environment working with the motto "Clean and then vanish quickly without a trace."

Maintenance Staff: Reid Plemmons, Bob Delisle, Randy Marshall, Mark Walker, Charles Stewart, Gary Buchanan, Wayne Hinkle, Danny Corn, Jack Hamlin, and Jerry Marshall.

Manabu presents Foreign ideas for Twister Productions in more than one way.

Student Government Association

SGA was and is a valuable resource for many students, giving them a chance to voice their opinions about life at Brevard College. SGA is broken down into the Judicial Board which handles cases of students, Twister Productions (formally Social Board) which handles activities for students and faculty, and finally SGA is broken into the actual Government run by the students. The members of these groups put in long hours often giving up "Melrose Place" and "90210", but despite that they still came back for more work.

Bottom L-R; Kate Crawford, Stephanie Nutting, Jeff Stroud, Erin Stacy, Chris Peterson, Cathy McClain, Ashley Tetterton and Edwardo Espinel make up part of the J-Board.

Curt Crowhurst dropped in on Social Board and in one week it became Twister Productions.

Summer and Kate review a case before a Grievance hearing.

Pertelote

The BC yearbook staff put together the Pertelote under the supervision and hard work of advisor, Patricia Chapman, and assistant advisor, Miriam O'Kane. In order to maintain the quality of the Pertelote staff, many hours of diligent work were necessary on the part of the Pertelote Staff. Their job involves much more than just taking the right pictures, coming up with accurate body copy, and creating interesting layout designs. Being in their second year on the staff, Martha and Raymond know that as well as anyone.

Yearbook members Kim, Chris and Brian discuss ideas for the yearbook.

Brain smiles happily after finishing up some pictures.

Using their critical eyes, Ms. O'Kane and Ms. Chapman select the perfect picture for the opening pages of the yearbook.

Jason remains busy, as usual, while waiting for his next assignment.

Martha prepares a page to be sent to the presses.

Just calm down, Raymond, it will be over soon.

Ms. Chapman, Chris Peterson, Don Jacques, Beth Bullock, Tenille Thorpe; bottom (l-r): Miriam O'Kane, Kim DeWitt, Martha Gilliam, and Raymond Smith.

Clarion

The Clarion is a major source of information and communication at Brevard. The students look forward to the turn out of all the Clarion staff's hard work to bring us the latest in current events and news-breaking stories. The college's newspaper gives the students a chance to voice their opinions on debated concerns and issues. The staff not only keeps the students informed, but the faculty as well, with news that counts.

Clarion Staff: (back row): Advisor Rhuemma C. Miller, Beth Miller, Rob Ham, Jenn Berry, Shelby Hepler, and Kathryn Lester. (Front Row): John Ostendorff, Heidi Rodenbaugh, and Erika Broadway.

Rhuemma Miller and John Ostendorff discuss topics for the next deadline.

Shelby Hepler and Beth Miller type away trying to complete articles in time for a deadline.

Chiaroscuro

BC's literary magazine, the Chiaroscuro, is a cherished tradition at Brevard College. Mrs. Peggy Jackson, the advisor, encourages students and even faculty on campus to realize their creative potential and make their mark by submitting poetry, photography, drawings, and short stories. The publication, released in early Spring, is a wonderful outlet for students' ideas, thoughts, and inspirations.

Chiaroscuro Staff: Cory Phillips, Peggy Jackson, Matt Cherry, and Beth Bullock.

The staff reviews submissions and learns how to layout a literary magazine.

Beth, Brian, and Cory format the poetry submissions.

BC Scholars

BC continues to reach out for higher academic students' interests. Each semester, faculty members and staff members present a research project they are working on or give a presentation for these BC Scholars who have pursued a higher academic concentration. Dr. Sheffield launched the program in hopes that the faculty could spend more time with these special students in a relaxed, yet stimulating atmosphere.

Dr. Susan Schmidt updates Dr. Sheffield and other BC Scholars about environmental issues.

Bob White enlightens the scholars about the Duke Conference.

BC scholars, faculty, and staff make for a very attentive audience.

Student Ambassadors

The Student Ambassadors work closely with the Admissions Office. Their purpose is to be tour guides on days when the campus has visitors and/or prospective students. Contributing many hours of hard work to the college, these students have no problem showing their positive attitude, representing BC, and introducing new students to college life.

Chief Student Ambassador Eric Hall represents Brevard College well.

Planning tours and working with schedules alone is tough work, yet Amit seems to be able to handle the pressure well.

Phi Theta Kappa

PTK is a international honor society aimed towards recognizing and promoting academic excellence. The privilege of membership is given to those who have demonstrated achievements in academics, honor, and service. BC's chapter, Delta Pi, puts together programs centered around an Honor's Topic, this year's was Rights, Privileges, and Responsibilities. They also organize fund raisers and activities in hopes of sparking academic interest along with a sense of community. As a reward of the diligent effort, the annual convention is held on a fine East Coach beach.

PTK members gather in order to find ways of serving campus and community.

Student Marshalls

The top four students with the highest GPA are the Student Marshalls of Brevard College. They were selected before going into their sophomore year, during the summer of 1995. These four students are exemplary of the "cream of the crop" and help Chief Marshall Ray Fisher in escorting the faculty during Convocations and during Graduation.

Outing Club

Since last year, the Outing Club has been making progress and getting "on its feet." Since the development of the Wilderness Education Program, BC now is offering the college's first immersion semester. The program is designed to be a highly educational experience for participants who are motivated to commit themselves to outdoor leadership training and extended backcountry experiences.

French And Spanish

The French Club, sponsored by Joy Bullock, as well as the Spanish Club which is sponsored by Judy Pascale, enjoyed a successful year. Both clubs are designed to encourage the members to appreciate and participate in other cultures. Special presentations, guest speakers, films, and socials help them fulfill this goal. Field trips also enhance awareness and appreciation of the larger world around us. This year the French Club traveled to the Biltmore House in Asheville which incorporates features from the Chateaux of the Loire. The Spanish Club as well enjoyed an outing of the own as they were invited to a fiesta at Senora Pascal's house.

Suzet helps to prepare a Spanish meal at Senora Pascale's house.

Before watching a film on the Biltmore house, Mdm. Bullock discusses the French culture to the club.

SEAC/BC Recycles

SEAC, Student Environmental Action Coalition, and BC Recycles both were formed in order to encourage students to get involved in environmental issues which affect us all. Both groups, lead by Dr. Glesener and Beth Fisher, have become instrumental in making sure that BC is on the right path to the progress and success of the human race.

The members of BC Recycles form a water brigade to water the tree planted on Earth Day.

College Life & FCA

College Life and FCA, sponsored by the Chaplain of the college Ernie Mills and Baseball Coach Rusty Stroupe, are organizations that seek to explore and celebrate all the facets of one's experience in college, while emphasizing the personal and the religious.

Sherry and Michael enjoy some inspirational music.

Rusty Stroupe instructs the FCA members about caroling.

To Martha G. Stephens,
Thank you for showing me
Brevard College. I have really appreciated having the two years with you. I cannot believe that you are 90 and going on 91 years old. You have taught me valuable lessons. THANK YOU!!!!

Love,
Martha Susan

I would like to thank my friends: Gavin, Tiffany, Brett, Julie, Anna, Brandilyn, and etc. for an interesting two years. I would have to say that Brevard is a good school. I am also thankful to Bill and Martha, Sarah and Woody, Bonnie, Doug, and Reid, and the rest of my extended family for allowing me to come here for higher education. I hope I do well where I go to school next. I will keep this school in my memories forever.

This note is to thank all those who helped me turn my life around, especially my family, Kari, my closest friends, and the instructors I've come to know. Thank you. This has been one wild ride and I hope it's not over yet! Really, I love you, man! Thanks for letting me find and be me! Thanks for letting me have fun! — Raymond Henri Smith —

Music Work Study

Stephanie Ann Nutting

Dean's List, Honor Roll, SGA, Judicial Board, RA, Vice-President Judicial Board, Achievement Scholarship, Music Scholarship, Phi Theta Kappa, BC Recycles, Collegiate Singers, Chamber Choir, Vocal Workshop, "The Fantasticks," Bookstore Work Study.

This year five students were selected as the 1995-96 Brevard College representatives in the Who's Who in American Junior Colleges. The decision was based upon honor in academic, extracurricular, and community achievement while enrolled in Brevard College. The recognition is not focused just upon the Accomplishments, but more so upon the individual students themselves — anent their potential, leadership, and community concern. These students are the most likely to continue with their overachievement and carry the skills on into the real world for real success. These students deal well with change, possessing the ability to change with the times and make the most out of it. As these students carry on what they have learned, we hope for them the best success later in life.

Joshua Quincey Poindexter

Dean's List, Excellence in Music History, Vice-President of Campus Affairs '94 Phi Theta Kappa, Beam Scholarship, Music Scholarship, French Club, Collegiate Singers, Chamber Choir, Jazz Choir, "The Fantastics," "Twelve Angry People."

Raymond Henri Smith
